

FOR FREE COINAGE.

At the California Miners' State Convention Congressman Newlands was invited to address the assemblage. Mr. Newlands denounced the present Congress for legislating to prevent Californians and Nevadans from acquiring money from their own mountains. Congress had not only done this, but it has thrown the country into a condition of industrial depression unparalleled in the history of the nation, and he urged the gold miners to assist in restoring one of the royal metals to its proper standard. At the close of his speech he was giving three cheers and the following relating to silver was adopted:

WHEREAS, History bears us out in the statement that the demonization of silver in 1873 resulted in an era of falling prices in the increasing of the burden of debt, in the enrichment of the creditor classes; and believing that there can be no permanent return of prosperity unless silver shall be restored to its true position as a money metal, be it

Resolved, That the California Miners' Association declares itself in favor of the free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, independent of any other nation, and to this end requests our delegation in Congress to further all legislation tending to the restoration of silver to its place as a money metal of the world, believing that such legislation would be for the best interests of our common country, and would meet with the unanimous indorsement of our people.

Here in the silver producing State of Nevada, where the prosperity of the people depends to a very great extent upon silver mining there are small politicians, who, in the hope of improving their chances for office by keeping in line with the Wall street parties, make light of the declarations of the silver men that silver should be coined free in the United States mints at the ratio of 16 to 1 with gold independent of any other nation, while the gold miners of California in convention assembled declare for such coinage and request their representatives in Congress to further all legislation tending to secure it. Fortunately the era of deception seems to be drawing to a close in Nevada, as the election returns show that not more than 2,800 voters in the State favor its continuance. An overwhelming majority of the people have declared against the parties whose national organizations are controlled by the Gold Trust and repudiated their agents at the polls.

THE STATE PRINTER.

The Carson News, commenting on the "Baltic" query in the Journal relative to the office of State Printer, says:

"The law of February 20, 1893, states expressly that 'An Act entitled an act to consolidate certain offices in the State of Nevada,' approved March 9, 1891, is hereby repealed. That act consolidated the offices of Treasurer and State Printer, two entirely incompatible offices, and should have never been passed, but the last Legislature amended matters by repealing the act. The incoming State Printer was elected legally, according to the law which was passed March 11, 1879, and which went into effect January 1, 1891, and which now stands unchanged."

"The law, with its various 'repeals' and 'substitutions' and other 'amendments,' is so confusing that 'Baltic' is scarcely to blame for being muddled on the question."

Our correspondent, "Baltic," suggests that the explanation of the News hardly explains, and calls particular attention to the concluding sentences of each of the acts of 1891 and 1893, and urges that the able lawyers differ regarding the effect that the last repeal of law has on the first repealing law, as both these acts take effect on the first Monday of January, 1895.—Reno Journal.

If there is any confusion of laws the Legislature should adjust the matter as soon as possible.

Mr. McCarthy made his campaign, was elected, and is entitled to assume the responsibilities of his office.

The Courier will absorb the imprint at Petaluma on the 1st of December.

George B. Williams and wife, pioneers of 1849, celebrated their sixtieth wedding anniversary at Petaluma yesterday.

W. J. Cornell of El Cajon, San Diego county, the notorious baby farmer, has been sentenced to eighteen months in the County Jail. He was convicted of attempting to blackmail a Denver man.

Captain Hamilton of the steamer Crown of England, which went ashore off the Ventura Coast, has been exonerated from all blame by an official inquiry. To the existence of uncharted currents is attributed the disaster.

Otis Savage and Ralph Gibbons, recently arrested at The Dalles, Or., upon the confession of one Klein, implicating them in the robbery of $14,000 from the Pacific Express Company's office at the place, have been exonerated by the Wasco County Grand Jury.

Three citizens of Ukiah played a practical joke on Hocklander, a carpet weaver, with a "ticktacking" arrangement fastened to his window. Hocklander followed the thread with his eye and discharged a load of bird-shot in line with it. All three of the jokers were hit, and doctors had to extract the metal.

The Austin Reveille is trying to make its readers believe that since the Republican victory in the East sheepmen have decided to hold on to their sheep for higher prices. Will the Reveille please tell us on what they base their hopes of an advance in wool?

The success of De Young in getting so many relics of Napoleon has spurred Hearst to go him a few better. Hearst has started for the Poly Land to gather up mementos of Christ. He expects to come back in a few months with a part of the true Cross and the rock that was rolled away from the sepulchre will be exhibited in the business office on Market street.

A curious political upheaval is shown in the case of Gov. Tillman of South Carolina, who will succeed Senator Butler. He never had more than ten months of schooling and fifteen years ago had never seen a railroad or a hotel. He carried all but three counties in his canvass for the Senate, with all the corporations and saloons opposed, and already he aspires to the Populist nomination for President in 1896. He is said to be large, ungainly, one-eyed, smugged-toothed and a hard drinker. But as a Governor he has enforced the laws, funded the State debt for six millions at 4 per cent and bears a name for undoubted integrity.
